Equity News

The Society of Equity having disposed of a large amount of the pooled tobacco, needs more room in which to have it sampled. We have rented to them our warehouse, and are therefore compelled to move the vehicles we have stored there to our salesroom at the store. This crowds us very much, and for that reason we are beginning today, May 20th, the biggest vehicle sale ever held in Maysville. We need the room, and, incidentally, the money, and now is your opportunity. Everybody knows that Mike Brown's Buggies are the best made, and that his word is as good as his bond, and when he tells you the rig will stand up and wear you may depend on it. If you are in need of a Buggy, Runabout, Surrey or Phaeton this should interest you.

FOR CONGRESS,
Hon. JOSEPH B. BENNETT.

If Governor HUGHES gets out of the race, he still has a beautiful set of whiskers to admire.

NOW THAT HARRY TRAW is anchored in the mad house the fair and frail EVELYN is safe for a while.

THE Taft boom has arrived at the stage where the stampede for the band-wagon is a circus in itself.

MR. BRYAN has made the race for President so often that another campaign is not even calculated to make him sweat.

TOM JOHNSON, Democratic boss of Cleveland, is just a shade worse than GEORGE B. COX, Republican boss of Cincinnati.

If the Chesapeake's Flag stays in England there's the consolation that American money kept it there.—New York Evening Post.

WAIT a minute: Most men have hobbies: this one books; that one fame; the other pelf; but heaven help the man whose hobby is himself.

SOME one remarks that the lawn mower is a good thing; push it along.

FUNNY thing: When a man gets into the Down-and-Out Club he is never satisfied until he joins the Knockers' Club. He wants to take every degree.

THE Government has ordered 40,000 pounds of chocolate eclairs for the sailor boys of the Navy and 100,000 pounds of chewing tobacco. Of course, JACK loves his backy best.

EX-GOVERNOR BECKHAM has gone back to the practice of law and the simple life at Frankfort, and if his feet are to be guided by the lamp of experience he will give politics a wide berth. As a rule, politics is the road to ruin and has been the everlasting undoing of thousands of men who "were otherwise all right."

HENRY WATTERSON has gone over to BRYAN body and breeches.—New York Globe.

He has, he has, you son-of-a-she-sawlog, he has; but where in the world did you get that speck o' mud on the heel of the patent leather boot of your off hind leg? RYAN, MORGAN or BELMONT?—Courier-Journal.

When Marse HENRI gets to gibbering like that you may be sure he never drinks mint juleps. But, lest we forget, maybe the great Editor is speaking volapuk or esperanto. Howintheellwillweeverknow?

WHY HE SHAVED SO MUCH.

Here is a good story that is going the rounds:

A very devout Church Deacon, being somewhat indisposed, was advised by his doctor to try hot toddy, but objected on account of the bad example it would set before the family.

"That's easy," said the doctor. "Just call for hot water, saying that you want to shave, and keep the other ingredients in your possession."

The next day a neighbor called to inquire how the Elder was getting along.

"He seems to be feeling much better," said his wife. "He shaved four times last night and three times this morning, and the doctor has just sent him another supply of shaving soap."

THE LEDGER will take part in the Decoration Day exercises tomorrow and the office will close at noon.

Mr. Harry Bradley, student at Kentucky Wesleyan College, Winchester, is spending his vacation with his mother, Mrs. Mary Bradley of East Second street. He will fill the pulpit at the Second M. E. Church, South, Sunday morning.

The Banks as well as every other patriotic son will close shop tomorrow and observe Decoration Day.

Mrs. Joseph F. Walton of Lexington joined her husband here yesterday, and is the guest of her son, Mr. Budette Walton. Captain Walton has been here some days assisting in sampling tobacco at the Equity Warehouse in Front street.

Miss Louise Best of the county left Wednesday to attend the closing exercises of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., where her brother will be one of a class of two hundred graduates.

Judge Harbeson Expected to Deliver Strong Charge on Night Riding Cases

From Augusta it was learned that there is a strong under-current of feeling in Bracken county, although the situation is apparently quiet.

Soldiers are stationed near Brooksville and Augusta and patrol the tobacco districts nightly. Circuit Court will begin at Brooksville Monday, and Judge Harbeson will deliver a strong charge to the Grand Jury relative to night rider outrages.

PARTY OF GIRLS

Attacked By Night Riders Near Frankfort—Peculiar Outrage

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 28th.—While on a hay ride in the Eastern part of the county last night, a crowd of young society people of this city were attacked by gangs of unknown men thought to be night riders and returned home at one o'clock this morning with bruised heads and bodies.

Two young women, Misses Gresham Payne and Margaret Frazier, were struck, the former sustaining a deep gash over the right eye, and the latter a serious injury in the back.

Four young men, Franklin Williams, Arva Ray, Dick Crutcher and Arthur Goins, were struck with rocks, Williams sustaining a bad scalp wound.

The party drove ten miles and say they were compelled to run a gauntlet of stones and clubs for more than three miles, as the missiles came from behind barns, fences and other places offering concealment. It is believed they were mistaken for soldiers, who have been patrolling the country.

ENTIRE SOUTH MOURNS

Death of General Stephen D. Lee, Commander-in-Chief of the United Confederate Veterans

VICKSBURG, Miss., May 28th.—General Stephen D. Lee, Commander-in-Chief of the United Confederate Veterans and one of the last three surviving Lieutenant Generals of the Confederacy, died here today at the residence of Captain W. T. Righy.

Over-exertion last Thursday in the ceremonies attendant upon the Reunion of Iowa and Wisconsin veterans of the G. A. R. at Vicksburg brought about General Lee's illness. Following the reception of the Northern visitors, in which General Lee took a leading part, he suffered an attack of acute indigestion, but later rallied and during the past week showed much improvement. Yesterday afternoon he again collapsed and grew gradually weaker until death relieved his sufferings shortly after 6 o'clock this morning.

At the outbreak of the Civil War General Lee resigned his commission in the U. S. Army and served with the Confederate Army in Virginia until after the battle of Antietam, when he was made a Brigadier General and sent to Vicksburg.

He played a prominent part in the siege of Vicksburg, and following the fall of that city was taken a prisoner. He was later exchanged and promoted.

VICTORIA, B. C., May 28th.—Disasters involving the loss of 2,000 lives, 1,900 in a typhoon and flood in Hinkow and an equal number in a coal mine fire in Kaanga, were reported from China today in a message brought by the Japanese liner Shinomo.

NATIONAL GUARD

To Be Reorganized — $2,000,000 Appropriation Bill Signed By President

WASHINGTON, May 28th.—The President yesterday signed the bill providing for the reorganization of the militia of the United States and its arming and equipment at a cost not to exceed $2,000,000, and gave the pen he used for the purpose to General J. A. Drah, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the National Association, who was active in the move to secure the legislation.

Assistant Secretary Oliver of the War Department, who has been specially charged with execution of the new law, said one of the first steps taken will be the appointment of a board composed of five representative officers of the organized militia to consult with the Secretary of War regarding the conditions and needs of that branch of the military establishment.

Decision of Appellate Court In Case of C. H. Hitch, Assignee

In reversing the case of Lowry & Goebel against C. H. Hitch's assignee, appealed from the Mason Circuit Court, the Court of Appeals Tuesday handed down an opinion that will be of vast interest to wholesalers, especially those who are non-residents of Kentucky.

According to the testimony given in the brief, C. H. Hitch purchased a stock of goods from C. A. Hainline in November, 1906, and proposed to conduct a store in this city. Hainline had retired from business on account of his health, but had a well established business.

Hitch went to Cincinnati and purchased a bill of goods from Lowry & Goebel, representing, so the Agents of Lowry & Goebel testified, that he had inherited considerable money. had his stock of goods purchased from Hainline paid for and had $1,000 to run his business on.

Shortly afterwards he failed and J. D. Dye was appointed as Assignee.

Lowry & Goebel filed suit to recover their property sold to Hitch, claiming that Hitch was insolvent at the time of the purchase of the goods and had misrepresented his financial condition. The creditors of Hitch took such action as to make Hitch an involuntary bankrupt under the Federal laws and a demurrer was filed to Lowry & Goebel's petition.

The Mason Circuit Court sustained the demurrer and it was from this ruling that Lowry & Goebel appealed and secured a reversal.

The Court of Appeals holds that it is a well established rule that where goods are purchased by insolvent parties and upon misrepresentation of their financial condition that the person selling the goods must not suffer.

The case is sent back to the Mason Circuit Court to be tried on its merits.
